A screenshot of the Tuoi Tre newspaper website. The page features a red header with the 'tuoi tre' logo and navigation links for Podcast, YouTube, and various news categories. Below the header, there's a main content area with a large article titled 'Xếp hàng, chờ dài cổ lấy thuốc bệnh mạn tính' (Queueing, waiting for a long time to get chronic disease medicine). To the left of the article, there's a sidebar with weather information for TP Hồ Chí Minh (26° - 33°C) and a list of news items. A 'Translate page from Vietnamese?' dialog box is open in the top right corner, showing options to translate to English or other languages.

A screenshot of a mobile app opening dialog. The dialog asks 'How do you want to open this?' and provides two main options: 'Keep using this app' and 'Mail'. The 'Mail' option is highlighted with a blue bar and includes the text 'Communicate quickly and focus on what's important.' Below these options, there's a section for 'Other options' which includes the Firefox logo and the text 'New'.
